Cherkas Global University

Abstract. This section highlights selected exhibitions of The Museum of the History of the American Knights Templar (also known as the Museum of Cherkas Global University). Founded on August 1, 2024, the museum initially developed four core collections: the Sword Collection; the Uniform Collection; the Badge Collection; and the Photo Collection, which includes portraits, group photographs, and promotional materials from U.S. Knights Templar commanderies. On November 1, 2025, a fifth collection—Personal Belongings and Souvenirs—was established. By October 2025, the museum's holdings numbered approximately 700 items, reflecting its rapid growth and expanding historical significance.

This section presents a selection of exhibitions held by The Museum of the History of the American Knights Templar (the museum is also known as the Museum of Cherkas Global University). The museum was established on August 1, 2024, and at that time, four main collections began to take shape:

The Sword Collection (Collection No. 1);

The Uniform Collection (coats, aprons, belts, and sashes) (Collection No. 2);

The Badge Collection (badges, badge pins, ribbons, and jewels) (Collection No. 3);

The Photo Collection (portrait and group photographs of members of the Knights Templar, as well as promotional materials produced by Knights Templar commanderies in the United States, including souvenir postcards) (Collection No. 4).

On November 1, 2025, the museum began forming a new collection — Collection of Personal Belongings and Souvenirs (Collection No. 5).

As of October 2025, the museum's holdings comprised approximately 700 items.
